May's character trait is - Compassion

**Compassion means showing tenderness, mercy, and kindness for others. If you are a compassionate person, you show a strong desire to help those who may be in pain or are suffering.

**Daily Reminders: be kind if someone makes a mistake; offer your help to him/her. If someone is sad, think of cheerful things to say.

Parents, please discuss with your children at home the importance of our month's character trait - Compassion. Look for the list of compassionate students in June's weekly reminder!
