

St. Monica Summer Chess Camp

What: 15 hours of quality chess instruction

Who: All levels, from total beginner to advanced, entering 1st-8th grade

When: July 25-29, 1:15-4:15pm

Where: St. Monica's Franciscan Room

Why: Chess develops memory, concentration, and logical reasoning, as well as a sense of healthy competition!

The Wisconsin Scholastic Chess Federation (WSCF) will provide instruction for the camp. Students will be divided by skill level and work to complete their pawn, knight, and bishop certificates. There will be a 5-round, Swiss-style tournament, and every student will earn a medal. Check out the WSCF website for more information: <http://www.wisconsinscholasticchess.org/>.

To enroll, please fill out the registration form, attach payment, and mail to the WSCF by July 21. Because St. Monica is hosting the camp, our students receive a discount and pay just $40 (plus $25 for each successive sibling). To receive that discounted rate, you must register by mail rather than online. Contact the WSCF about possible scholarships.
