November's Character Trait is - Self-Control

- * Self-control is the ability to control one's emotions, behavior and desires.
- * Self-Control begins by learning to recognize impulses, emotions, desires, or "itches" that need restraint and then acting to take power over yourself without being reminded.
- * Students who display self-control are also showing self-discipline and willpower.

Look for the list of students showing Self-Control in December's Weekly Reminder!

Parents, please check out my staff page for weekly updates on the "goings on" in Guidance!
