Bishop Sklba is an Auxiliary Bishop of our Archdiocese and is known for being a scripture scholar who has taught at St. Francis Seminary and has authored books, various articles and papers. He has served on many committees for the National Conference of Catholic Bishops including the one he presently chairs, the Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs Committee. Many parishioners have experienced Bishop Sklba in his pastoral role of conferring the sacrament of Confirmation.

Let us turn out to enthusiastically welcome Bishop Sklba and to be renewed spiritually through the gifts he will share.
