

“Never tire of doing good.” Thessalonians 3:13

ST. MONICA AND ST. EUGENE PARISHES

SERVICE SATURDAY

JUNE 5, 2010

Join us for a Saturday morning of “doing good”. We’ll divide into teams to make a difference throughout Milwaukee. No experience needed. All it takes is a can-do attitude and a few hours of your time!

8am - Mass at St. Eugene (optional)
8:30 am – Registration and Blessing at St. Eugene Mackin Hall (note new location)
(Please bring a non-perishable food item for the Blessed Trinity Food Pantry)
9 am to noon – Service Projects (various locations)

Projects marked with a  are suitable for families with school-age children, who may participate if accompanied by a parent. Otherwise, volunteers must be 16 years of age or older. You will be contacted, in advance, by your team leader to get your assignment and specifics.

Please indicate your areas of interest, numbering your first, second and third choices.

Shelter Those in Need:
• Help Habitat for Humanity with construction and maintenance (note: project runs until 3 pm)
Serve Seniors:
• Help north shore seniors with household chores through Shoreline Interfaith
Clothe Those in Need:
